Social Media @ your library

We are building an interactive community space for our users. Over the next few months the library will be phasing in several components that will work together to help you stay connected to your library.

Phase 1: ChiliFresh allows you to read and write reviews for books that are in our catalogue.

From the library's website you will be able to get recommendations of books from other people in our community and you will be able to record your own suggestions.

.....Watch out for more developments this fall.
